Relationship is Key

We are invited for a health check at our medical centre. We know we are out of shape and that we will probably get a bit of lecture! The health practitioner takes us through a check list. How much do we drink? How much do we smoke? How much exercise do we take? How much fruit do we eat? Then we are given a bit of advice and a leaflet on healthy living. We stuff the leaflet in a pocket and escape.

Any good counsellor will agree that issuing someone with a list of do's and don'ts is rarely helpful. That's not how change works. The key to facilitating change is relationship. When we talk to people and work out what is important to them and what they are struggling with, only then can we really help or be helped.

In today's gospel Jesus encourages his disciples to go out amongst the people to seek out the lost and remove the obstacles between them and God. He didn't send out the disciples in a spirit of judgment, but a spirit of empathy.

Empathy and relationship are essential when it comes to helping someone to change. Jesus was able to change people's lives simply by the way in which he related to them and he asks us to do the same. So how do we respond to Jesus' command to share what we have learned? Do we try to impose our views on others whether they like it or not, or do we take time to gain genuine and sensitive insight to make relationship key.

Entrance Antiphon:	O Lord, hear my voice, for I have called to you; be my help. Do not abandon or forsake me, O God, my Saviour!
Responsorial Psalm:	We are his people, the sheep of his flock.
Gospel Acclamation:	Alleluia, alleluia. The kingdom of God is at hand; repent and believe in the gospel. Alleluia.
Communion Antiphon:	There is one thing I ask of the Lord, only this do I seek: to live in the house of the Lord all the days of my life.

It is putting out the lamp because the dawn has come.
