Weeding Life’s Garden

St. Francis of Assisi was asked one day as he was weeding in the garden, “What would you do if you knew the world was about to end?” St. Francis replied, “Continue weeding my garden of course.” The implication was that Francis didn’t have to rush around like a headless chicken putting his house in order. Francis was already living his life in a state of readiness, and he had no need to worry himself about the end of the world.

Today we are told what it might be like at the end of time. There might be wars, earthquakes famines plagues and Christian persecution. In fact it doesn’t sound too dissimilar to the state of affairs on our daily news programmes. Should we be concerned?

Jesus points to the end of history and declares that the future holds a time of reckoning. Like the disciples in today’s reading, we are tempted to ask when that time might be, only to be told that it’s something that shouldn’t concern us. We mustn’t listen to those who claim, “The end is nigh...” instead we must always focus on what there is left to do. The basic premise is that we should keep on doing right, regardless of the circumstances.

Like the people in today’s gospel who were so pleased with their temple, we are often pleased with what we build up here on earth. Jesus takes the opportunity to point out that everything man made will come to an end. We would be much better off focusing not on a material agenda but in developing a faith that will endure great adversity.

If we are ready for God’s final judgment then we shouldn’t be afraid of anything that is ahead of us. Global disaster, wars and earthquakes should hold no terror if we trust completely in God. Our lives are like a garden filled with good things we must nurture, and bad things we must weed out. When the end of time comes, we must face our mortality as Francis suggests, weeding life’s garden and living in readiness.

Entrance Antiphon :	The Lord said: I think thoughts of peace and not of affliction. You will call upon me and I will answer you, and I will lead back your captives from every place.
Responsorial Psalm :	The Lord comes to judge the peoples with fairness.
Gospel Acclamation :	Alleluia, alleluia! Straighten up and raise your heads, because your redemption is drawing near. Alleluia.
Communion Antiphon:	To be near God is my happiness, to place my hope in God the Lord.
Year C	Malachi 3: 19-20	Psalms 98	2 Thessalonians 3: 7-12	Luke 21: 5-19

BECOMING ONE

Sr. Bernie and Sr. Catherine write: "On the 8th August it was announced by our General Leadership Team in Rome that 'with joyful hearts IBVM Loreto members have voted in favour of merger with the Congregatio Jesu (CJ)'. This means that from the 4th November our official title is CJ Loreto instead of IBVM Loreto. Our schools will remain as Loreto Schools and Colleges. Our Congregations have always shared the same foundress, the now Venerable, Mary Ward (1585 - 1645). Teresa Ball, having been educated by the Mary Ward Sisters at the Bar Convent in York, was asked in 1821 by Daniel Murray, the then Archbishop of Dublin, to bring the same to Ireland. She went back to York to prepare for this onerous mission. Subsequent foundations around the Globe, including England, mushroomed and became known as Loreto. However the links between the Congregatio Jesu and Loreto have always stayed strong, facilitating this official merger, our Becoming One. We pray that the united Congregation will continue to preserve, and minister out of Mary Ward's Values, Gospel Values of Freedom, Justice, Sincerity, Truth, and Joy.
