Believing Without Seeing

Have we lost our belief in what we cannot see? Do we start to pray for something but stop mid sentence feeling sure that God can't be listening. Even if he is listening, why on earth would he grant our unimportant prayers? Perhaps we cannot remember a time when a prayer was answered and so lose hope. Perhaps we have had a prayer answered but imagine it was more likely to be some great coincidence or a stroke of luck than God at work.

Today's gospel is a lesson in faith and prayer. The story starts in a place many of our prayers begin, in a place of darkness desperation and raw need. Bartimaeus the blind beggar shows us what faith is all about. He knows that Jesus is passing by and knowing that this might be his one and only chance of a cure, seizes his opportunity. He shouts out and keeps shouting despite others telling him to pipe down. He is eager, assertive, and full of hope. Bartimaeus shows us that faith is all about believing that God can do something for us that we cannot do for ourselves; and to persist in asking. It becomes clear that the story is not just about a physical healing but a spiritual awakening. Once Bartimaeus had encountered Jesus, he must surely have embarked upon a life of commitment to Christ.

Entrance Antiphon: Let the hearts that seek the Lord rejoice; turn to the Lord and his strength; constantly seek his face.

Responsorial Psalm: What marvels the Lord worked for us! Indeed we were glad.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia! I am the light of the world, says the Lord, anyone who follows me will have the light of life.. Alleluia!

Communion Antiphon: We will ring out our joy at your saving help and exult in the name of our God.

What is COP26 and why is it important?

A guide to COP26, the UN climate summit, which is due to take place in Glasgow from 31 October-12 November 2021. CAFOD has written a very useful guide to COP26 which you can read at

In the run-up and during the summit, we are invited to pray that the leaders and negotiators work together for positive outcomes for people and for our common home.

BITESIZE

In the end you regret less the things you believed that weren't true than the things that never came true because you didn't believe.

OUR MEMBERS OF PARLIAMENT

After the shocking murders of Sir David Amess, MP, we pray for all those who stand for public office as politicians in both central and local government.

We especially pray for Mike Cain, MP for Wythenshawe & Sale East, Graham Brady, MP for Altrincham & Sale West and parishioner Barbara Keely, MP for Worsley and Eccles South. We also pray for our local councillors.

We pray that God will bless them and keep them safe in their work for their constituents and for the whole country.
